

Nemschoff® Lauderdale Seating

Nemschoff Lauderdale Seating consists of an armchair, settee, sofa, and multiple seating, all featuring a residential style that looks right at home in healthcare. Plush cushions and graceful curves are staples of Lauderdale's style, while continuous arms are the most singular characteristic. The arms extend around the back of all pieces, embracing the back cushion and producing a distinctive look from every angle—even behind. Two sizes of Lauderdale Seating are available to create a striking impression in any waiting room, lobby, or lounge.
